Question 1:

Will the Housing Authority provide some sort of training / information session please after the candidate is selected?

Answer 1:

Yes, an introductory meeting for the administrative task shall be held before the first case is assigned.

Question 2:

I wish to enquire with regards to the advocate fees that would result from the official tax bill in situations where the tenant would not be responsible for court expenses.

In such an event when such fees are taxed, is the advocate representing entitled to them or are they included in the remuneration fee listed in the EOI?

Answer 2:

The Fees include the exclusive representation of the court case, including court sittings, up to the decision.

Any other extra fees over and above the agreed remuneration in the EOI will have to be paid by the client.

All other EOI documents, conditions and requirements, which are not superseded by these clarifications remain in place.
