Question 1:

With respect to the PI being requested, my insurance provider has informed me that they cannot quote a limit with a different aggregate and that any one occurrence and in the aggregate shall always be the same.

Answer 1:

No. The PI limit should be as stated in Item 15. Of the EOI document.

Question 2:

In the event that a perit is assigned a commission, would the perit have the option to refuse the commission? If so, is the perit required to provide a justification for declining the assignment?

Answer 2:

Yes, a justification for declining would need to be given.

All other EOI documents, conditions and requirements, which are not superseded by this clarification remain in place.
